October 22, 2008 - SIFMA Asset Managers Forum Member Meeting

Sindex Financial Systems' CEO, Mike Berger, will be speaking at the AMF Members Meeting. The meeting will include several roundtable discussions on Asset Management Operational Challenges in the Current Market Environment. Mr. Berger will join other industry experts in discussing the lessons learned and best practices to overcome these challenges, for both individual firms as well as the industry at large. The panel will focus on topics including; review of contracts with service providers to re-evaluate risk and exposure for bankruptcy, review of trading contracts and collateral agreements, post trade processing for improved STP and re-evaluating in-house versus outsourced solutions for post trade processing.
